Adrian Anthony and Christopher Bell sentenced for 2013 Murder

Robbie Gibson killed during robbery on North Gray Street

(Indianapolis, Ind.) – Marion County Prosecutor Terry Curry announced today that Adrian Anthony and Christopher Bell have been sentenced for their roles in the November 2013 shooting death of Robbie Gibson. Anthony and Bell were convicted by a jury in April of Murder and Robbery (A Felony), and Anthony was convicted of an additional charge of Carrying a Handgun Without a License (A Misdemeanor). Anthony was sentenced to 62 years in the Indiana Department of Correction. Bell was sentenced to 45 years in the Indiana Department of Correction.

On November 27, 2013, Robbie Gibson and his brother Ron Gibson were working at a residence on North Gray Street when they were approached by two suspects who displayed a handgun and demanded everything from their pockets. Anthony fatally shot Robbie Gibson before fleeing the scene.

This sentence will run consecutive to the 318-year sentence Anthony is currently serving for his role in an October 2013 home invasion and assault that occurred on East 79th Street.

Anthony is also being held on two additional, unrelated cases including a violent home invasion that occurred on North Spring Mill Road in October 24, 2013. A jury trial for that matter is set for August 10.

A charge of a crime is merely an accusation, and the defendant is presumed innocent until and unless proven guilty.
